INDIAN AIRLINES CORPORATION

New Delhi, the 26th June 1968

No. Fin/Rules/5.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (b) and (c) of the Sub Section (2) of Section 45 of the Air Corporations Act, 1953 (27 of 1953), the Indian Airlines Corporation, with the previous approval of the Central Government, has amended Regulation 12 of the Service Rules for Flying Crew, the Service Rules for employees in Aircraft Engineering Department and the Service Rules for employees other than the Flying Crew and those in the Aircraft Engineering Department, published in the Gazette of India, Part II, dated the 12th March, 1960/Phalguna 22 1881. (Notification No. GSR. 302 of 15th September, 1959). The amendments to the above mentioned Regulation are hereby notified as under :—

1 SERVICE RULES FOR FLYING CREW

Rule 12 is amended to read as under :—
Rule 12 :—

Flying Crew shall be retained in the service of the Corporation only so long as they remain medically fit for flying duties but shall retire on attaining the age of 58 years. Provided that the competent authority may require an employee to retire after he attains the age of 55 years on giving three months' notice without assigning any reason.

Provided further that the retention of a Pilot, a Flight Engineer, a Flight Navigator and a Radio Officer in the service of the Corporation shall be subject to his keeping his licence current. Provided further that an employee may retire voluntarily after attaining the age of 55 years after giving three months' notice to the competent authority.

15 GI/63

An Air Hostess shall retire from the service of the Corporation on her attaining the age of 30 years or when she gets married, whichever is earlier. The General Manager, may, however, retain in service an unmarried Air Hostess upto the age of 35 years.

NOTE :—Employees who were on leave preparatory to retirement extending beyond 1st December, 1962 or were on extension of service on that date may be permitted to continue in service upto the age of 58 years. However, the employees who had already retired on 1-12-62 or were on refused leave beyond the date of compulsory retirement on the date are not entitled to resume duty under the Revised Rule.

(Approved vide Government's Communication No. 7-CA(10)/63, dated 22-10-63 to take effect from 1-12-62).

Add the following Note (2) below the existing Note under Rule 12 :—

NOTE 2:—Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 12, the services of an employee may, at the option of the General Manager, and the employee being found medically fit, be extended by one year at a time beyond the age of retirement of 58 years for an aggregate period not exceeding two years.

(Approved vide Government's Communication No. 7-CA(21)/66, dated 28/31-5-1966 and 7-CA(21)/66, dated 24-9-1966 to take effect from 31-5-1966).

2 SERVICE RULES FOR EMPLOYEES IN THE AIRCRAFT ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

Rule 12 is amended to read as under :—
Rule 12 :—

An employee shall retire from the service of the Corporation on attaining the age of 58 years, provided that the competent authority may require an employee to retire after he attains the age of 55 years on giving three months' notice without assigning any reason. An employee may retire voluntarily after attaining the age of 55 years giving three months' notice.

NOTE :—Employees who were on leave preparatory to retirement extending beyond 1st December, 1962 or were on extension of service on that date may be permitted to continue in service upto the age of 58 years.
